

Bill of Sale

A record of the sale of goods from a seller to a buyer. Template v1.0.

Date of sale: _____

Seller: _____

Buyer: _____

1. The goods

The Seller sells to the Buyer, and the Buyer buys, these goods (the Goods):

Serial or identification number, if any: _____

Known faults the Seller has told the Buyer about:

2. Price and payment

Price: _____

How the Buyer pays: _____

Ownership of the Goods passes to the Buyer when the Seller receives the full price. Once the full price is paid, this bill of sale is the Buyer's receipt.

3. Ownership

The Seller confirms that the Seller owns the Goods and has the right to sell them, and that they are free of any loan, lien or claim by anyone else. If someone proves a claim to the Goods that arose before the sale, the Seller is responsible for it.

4. Condition

The Buyer has had the chance to inspect the Goods. The Goods are sold as is, with any faults they have, and the Seller makes no other promise about their condition or fitness for a purpose. This does not limit any right the law gives a buyer that cannot be excluded, or the Seller's responsibility for any false statement about the Goods.

5. Delivery and risk

How and when the Buyer gets the Goods: _____

The risk of loss or damage to the Goods passes to the Buyer when the Buyer takes possession of them.

6. Taxes

The Buyer pays any sales, use or transfer tax the law charges on this sale, unless the law requires the Seller to pay it.

7. Governing law

This bill of sale is governed by the laws of:

8. Whole agreement

This bill of sale is the whole agreement about the sale of the Goods. A change is valid only in writing signed by both parties.

Buyer

Signature

Name

Date

Seller

Signature

Name

Date